1:00PM – 3:00PM

Fireside S'mores & hot chocolate

Cost: $2.50 for 2 S'mores & hot chocolate

Location: Pavilion (behind the Mercantile)

The farm is beautiful in the winter! Come gather around the fire rings located next to the pavilion. Enjoy the crisp fresh air and reflective beauty of the glistening snow-covered ground. Stop by after your Dairy Store and Mercantile visits and stay awhile.

May 17

Noon – 2:00PM

Gentle Sheep Shearing

Cost: Free. Donations deeply appreciated

Location: Coach Barn (located across the street from the Dairy Store)

Join us for an afternoon of warmth and learning at our gentle sheep shearing event! We demonstrate the art and necessity of sheep shearing, an important aspect of sheep health and hygiene. Suitable for guests of all ages, this event offers a unique opportunity to understand the full cycle of wool production - from shearing to spinning to products. Our commitment to farm animal welfare shines through this gentle and respectful process, ensuring our sheep are comfortable and stress-free throughout.

August 1 – August 2

Noon – 5:00PM

Historic Camp at Spring Brook Farm

Cost: Free. Donations deeply appreciated

Location: Spring Brook Farm (located on Hillside Road, one mile from Hillside's Dairy Store)

Description: Join period actors and experts to experience life during the Revolutionary War period. Learn how citizens dressed, prepared meals, hunted, protected their families and themselves. See live fire of Revolutionary-style Muzzleloaders. Be sure to ask what type of jobs did individuals hold? Did women work outside the home? What about school for children? This is a weekend filled with historic facts and folklore!
